THE COMPETITION

7. Super9ja consists in predicting the scores of the 6 matches selected by Bet9ja.com each round. Players are awarded points for each correct prediction, as follows: 10 points per correct score (prediction of the exact score of a match, ex. Chelsea vs Arsenal 1-0); 1 point per correct result (prediction of the result of a match, ex. Chelsea to win against Arsenal). A maximum of 10 points per match will be awarded. Players will submit their entries online at Bet9ja.com/Super9ja. When submitting their entry, Players will also be asked to enter the Total Goals that will be scored in the 6 selected matches. No points will be scored for correctly predicting the Total Goals (as defined below). Total Goals will be used to determine winners in the case of ties as defined for each prize category below.
8. The Super9ja Promotion closes when the first game of the round kicks off (unless otherwise specified). Once an entry has been submitted, it can be changed before the closing time via the Website or Mobile App. In order to enter the Promotion, Players must predict the scores for all 6 Super9ja matches identified for the relevant week. Once the weekly competition has closed entrants cannot change their weekly predictions.
9. The following prizes will be awarded:

Jackpot: The Jackpot prize is 10,000,000 Naira unless otherwise specified. This prize is awarded to the player who correctly predicts the scores in ALL 6 Super9ja matches in a relevant week. If there are two or more players who have correctly predicted the score of all 6 Super9ja matches, the Jackpot Competition prize will be split equally amongst those players

Consolation Weekly Prizes: Subject to below, the total consolation prize for each Super9ja Promotion week is 265,000 Naira (unless otherwise specified). This weekly prize will be split among the 20 players (other than any winner of the Jackpot Competition) who score the highest number of points during a Super9ja round, as shown on the Leaderboard. The weekly consolation prize pool is divided as follows:

- 100,000 Naira to the 1st classified,
- 50,000 Naira to the 2nd classified,
- 30,000 Naira to the 3rd classified,
- 20,000 Naira to the 4th classified,
- 15,000 Naira to the 5th classified,
- 7,500 Naira to the 6th-10th classified,
- 2000 Naira to the 11th-15th classified,
- 500 Naira to the 16th-20th classified

Note: Players who win the Jackpot count as classified in the weekly Leaderboard, therefore the number of consolation prizes for the relevant week will be reduced accordingly. Example: If the Jackpot prize is awarded, the number of consolation prizes on the relevant week will be reduced. Please note if there are a number of entrants tied in a prize winning position on the same amount of total points and total goals in this instance, the top 20 is selected based on which entrants placed their bets first. Prizes will never be given out to more than 20 people based on these criteria.

At least one Super9ja fixture must be completed during the relevant round in order for the 265,000 guaranteed weekly prizes to be awarded. If two or more players have predicted the same number of correct scores, the number of correct results will count towards the consolation prize. If two or more players have the same number of points after calculating correct scores and correct results the player whose Total Goals prediction is closest to the actual number of total goals score in the Super9ja matches will be the winner. If two or more players make Total Goals predictions equally close to the number of Total Goals occurred, the weekly prize will be split equally amongst those players.

10. Additional Bonus Prizes: Additional prizes and/or special prizes may be introduced during the Promotion at the discretion of Bet9ja.
